Assessments for new teachers 2010

If you are a dance teacher and would like to register with An Coimisiun you can do so every year at our annual Qualifiers. You can take an assessment, which includes all dances at the beginners level in both soft and hard shoe. An experienced examiner from the Udaras (An Coimisiun Examinations Authority) will hold your exam and if successful, you will be invited to complete the registration process whereby you will become a fully registered teacher with CLRG with what is called "Conditional status". Successful candidates are re-assessed every year until the time comes when you will be advised by the Udaras to sit your TCRG diploma.

There are many teachers holding such a status who are making wonderful progress and many are developing top-class dance schools. They can participate in decision making within the teachers association RTME, as well as giving the opportunity to their dancers to compete at the highest level. One such teacher had a dancer who qualified for the World Championships in previous years. This is wonderful proof that this new system for registration is working very well.

If you would like to be assessed please contact Mary at mursweeney@aol.com. The Udaras at An Coimisiun will notify those who require re-assessment.

The assessments and re-assessments usually take place during our Oireachtas on Saturday this year or the Friday evening before.

Closing date for registration for assessments is October 1st 2010.
